DETAILED ACTION

Terminal Disclaimer Disapproved

1. The person who signed the terminal disclaimer, filed on 12/20/04, is not recognized as an officer of the assignee, and he/she has not been established as being authorized to act on behalf of the assignee. See MPEP § 324. An attorney or agent, not of record, is not authorized to sign a terminal disclaimer in the capacity as an attorney or agent acting in a representative capacity as provided by 37 CFR 1.34 (a). See 37 CFR 1.321(b) and/or (c).

Double Patenting

2. Claims 1-7, 9-14, 15-29, 31-39 and 41-51 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-20 of U.S. Patent No. 6,764,396 in view of Frank et al.

3. The patent to Frank et al. teaches that it is known in the lottery gaming machine art to provide media (redeemable ticket) to the player. A media dispenser in communication with the game apparatus, Fig. 1, dispenses media to the player, col. 1, lines 65-68. In view of such teaching, it would have been obvious to modify the gaming device of U.S. Patent No. 6,764,396 by incorporating media, wherein the lottery or keno ticket having symbols selected by a player, Fig. 12, would have been printed. A media dispenser in communication with the game apparatus would have been used to dispense the lottery or keno ticket to the player. This modification would have made the game apparatus of U.S. Patent No. 6,764,396 play more like a conventional lottery or keno game thus attracting lottery and keno players.

4. Claims 8, 30 and 40 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims, 7, 27 and 37 of U.S. Patent No. 6,764,396 in view of Frank et al. further in view of Bouedec. The patent to Bouedec teaches that it is known in the lottery gaming machine art to provide media T1 comprising removable coating 7 adapted to cover at least a portion of the media. In view of such teaching, it would have been obvious to incorporate removable coating to media of U.S. Patent No. 6,764,396. The tickets having lottery or keno numbers would have been covered by removable coating for security purposes.

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 3711

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
